

Teacher guidance for activity

	Palaeolithic	Mesolithic	Neolithic
what they ate	children could act out: hunting large mammals and finding food	children could act out: fishing by the river and hunting for food with a bow and arrow This shows a: change	children could act out: grinding flour and baking bread This shows a: change where they lived	children could act out: roaming the land, not staying still or resting for long	children could act out: sleeping and resting and then going out to hunt This shows a: change	children could act out: sleeping/cutting corn/ looking after animals This shows a: change who they lived with	children could act out: being with others in a 'community'	children could act out: being with others in a 'community' This shows a: continuity	children could act out: being with others in a 'community', but also with animals This shows a: change how they stayed warm	children could act out: sitting around by the fire keeping warm	children could act out: sitting around by the fire keeping warm This shows a: continuity	children could act out: sitting around by the fire keeping warm This shows a: continuity