

The counties of England

1. Use your map to locate and colour the county that you live in.
2. Use different colours to shade the counties that border it.
3. Create a key to show which counties you have coloured.
4. Answer the questions on page 2.

The county where I live is called _____

The counties which border my county are:

Answer these questions using your map to help you:

1. Which two counties are on the border with Scotland?

2. Which of these counties is on the coast (where the land meets the sea)?

Tick the correct answer.

- a. Derbyshire ----- ☐
- b. Norfolk ----- ☐
- c. Oxfordshire ----- ☐
- d. Leicestershire ----- ☐

3. Which is the only county in England that is also an island?

4. Give three examples of counties that include 'shire' in their names.

1.

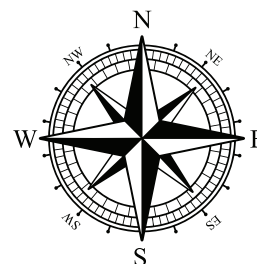

2.

3.

5. Which two counties are the furthest east?

1.

2.

6. Which of these counties is in the south of England? Tick the correct answer.

- a. Northumberland ----- ☐
- b. Devon ----- ☐
- c. Cumbria ----- ☐
- d. Durham ----- ☐

7. True or false?

Yorkshire is in the north of England.

8. True or false?

Kent is in the north-east of England.

