Menai Bridge, Wales

Built to allow people and vehicles to cross the river to reach the island of Anglesey.

Hadrian's Wall, England

Built by Romans who had settled in England in order to protect their land and stop invaders attacking from the north.

The Kelpies, Scotland

Built to honour the working horses that pulled barges, ploughed fields and powered machinery during the industrial age.

Carrickfergus Castle, Northern Ireland

Built to protect the people of the area and watch over the sea so approaching enemies could be seen.