

Challenge activity

Read the statements and decide if they are true or false.

Statement	True or False
Friction is a force that acts between two surfaces or objects that are moving.
All surfaces create friction on an object moving across them.
Rougher surfaces produce less friction than smoother surfaces.
Friction is always a useful force.
There is no friction on an ice rink.

www.grammarsaurus.co.uk

Challenge activity

Read the statements and decide if they are true or false.

Statement	True or False
Friction is a force that acts between two surfaces or objects that are moving.
All surfaces create friction on an object moving across them.
Rougher surfaces produce less friction than smoother surfaces.
Friction is always a useful force.
There is no friction on an ice rink.

www.grammarsaurus.co.uk